We republish from the Hohen Thousandsides the following editorial which is along the line we have been endeavoring to lead the voters of Southwestern Kentucky for some time past. There has been too little said upon this subject, and we trust that the State papers will give more space to this subject between now and November 7th, in order to show the folly of returning to the old viva voce system of voting. The Thousandsides says:

THE CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT.

Every voter should consider carefully what he going to vote for at the coming November election.

There is a Constitutional Amendment to be voted on by the people, and you should consider it well before casting your vote. The amendment is whether our State shall use the present system of voting the Australian ballot system, or go back to the old viva voce system, or one very much like it.

Now, it does not matter so much what system is used in the mountain section of Southwestern Kentucky where the country is thinly settled, and every man is his own household, and is not looking to a money king or corporation for his support he can vote his sentiments publicly and there is no one to hinder or hurt his financial affairs.

With the present system of voting, every man in Kentucky can vote his sentiments without conflicting with his financial affairs, and no one knows how you vote or never will know unless you are narrow-minded enough to tell. But if you vote in the old viva voce system of voting, the big corporations will influence and control the vote of the county. This scheme was gotten up in the Legislature by the big corporations in order that they might get control of the vote of the State.

"Poor voter! whatever you do, vote this down, for it will be harmful to the poor class of people. On the day we hold our election, if this measure is carried, the corporations will have men to stand at the polls and take the name of all their employees who vote against certain measures which they are interested in, and if their employees happen to vote contrary to their wishes, they will certainly lose their jobs; therefore you see that a poor man cannot vote as he wishes under the proposed new system of voting without losing his job, and thus, have his only way of supporting his family taken away from him, and as he cannot make a living any other way, he is compelled to vote as his employer says. The poor man at the coming November election should use every effort to defeat this Constitutional Amendment.

The citizens of Barbourville have made good selections in their municipal officers, to be voted for in November. The nominee for Mayor, R. W. Cole, is a man of wide business experience and is now serving out the unexpired term of his brother, H. C. Cole, deceased. He is a careful, economical business man, and will look to the interest of the people of the entire town.

The nominee for Police Judge has had experience, both as Magistrate and as Police Judge in this county, and the people know him by his past record, and the fact that he received the unanimous vote of the convention speaks more than we could say were we to devote unlimited space to compliment his past record.

The Councilmen are all business men of experience and all will study to serve the people in the very best manner that is possible.

We can recommend the entire ticket to the voters of Barbourville and assure them that when these men have served out their term of office the people will realize that the convention of last Saturday acted wisely in making selection of nominees.

The Republican convention last Saturday afternoon was a real love fest in spite of the efforts of the Democrats to stir up trouble.

PERSONALS.

L. W. Palmer has returned from the Wayne county oil field.

Mrs. M. S. Costello was in Louisville the greater part of this week.

W. M. Dishman and wife returned the first of the week from their bridal tour to Chattanooga and other points in the South.

Lewis D. Scapison came in last Friday evening from Chicago to spend a few days with his parents and other relatives here. He is looking well and enjoying good health.

Dr. G. H. Albright, who is now physician for the Cumberland Coal Company, is a busy man these days. He comes to town occasionally and reports considerable activity in that neck of the woods.

Secretly Hurt.

Mr. Andrew Mitchell was severely hurt at the coal tipple near the L. & N. depot in this city last Monday morning.

He was on the spring seat of his wagon and spring the tipple trap to load his wagon, when in some manner he fell across the wagon and broke one of his ribs and otherwise injured himself about the head and body. A physician was called and his wounds were dressed and he is now improving.

Well Represented.

Knox county was well represented at the State Development Convention at Louisville this week. Those from this place in attendance were, Judge James D. Black, Chas. Davis, Alex. Vaughn, John G. Mattheus, John Tuggle, J. D. Tuggle, S. T. Davidson and D. W. Clark.

Several from the county were also in attendance. Judge James D. Black spoke Tuesday on "Kentucky to the Front," and Charles Davis responded for Knox county at the roll call of counties Thursday.

THE HOME CIRCLE COLUMN.

HOME AGAIN.
"Home again, mother, your boy will remain
For a time, at least in the old home again,
How good to see you in your cornered nook
With knitting, or sewing, or paper, or book;
The same sweet mother my boyhood knew,
The faithful, the patient, the tender, the true.
"You have little changed; ah, well, maybe
A few gray hairs in the brown I see;
A mark or two under smiling eyes,
So lovingly bent in your glad surprise;
'Tis I who have changed; ah, mother mine,
From a teasing lad to manhood's prime.
"No longer I climb on your knee at night
For a story told in the soft firelight,
No broken slate, or book all torn,
Do I bring to you with its edges worn;
But I'll come to you with my graver came.
You'll help me bear them with tender prayers
I'll come again as of old, and you
Will help the man to be brave and true;
For the man's boy, only older grown,
And the world has many a stepping stone,
Ah, mother mine, there is always rest
When I find you in the old home nest."

KIND words are like jewels in the heart, never to be forgotten, but perhaps to cheer by their memory a long, sad life. While the words of cruelty are like darts in the no-man's-land, wounding scars that will be borne to the grave by their victims.
NEVER be too tired or too busy to welcome an absent one's return with a pleasant greeting. If at any time reproach be necessary, give it gently and firmly but never on the eve of parting nor on the absent one's return. Let pleasant memories hallow the parting hour and homecoming.
IN the very beginning it was decided by the highest authority that it was not good or man to be alone, and I don't wonder at it when we look about us and see how much some men expect of their wives. We read somewhere recently that "of all creatures in the world a man is the most helpless alone. A chicken two hours out of the shell can take better care of itself than a man can." Of course a woman wrote that, and the next conclusion is that that woman has had her husband's neck and ears ever since she has had him and his made him just the helpless creature that he is.

THE GIRL WE ALL LOVE.
There are girls, and many of them, even readers of this paper, of whom it can be truthfully said, we all love them. They have virtues whose charm of manner attracts us all. They are not self-righteous. They are not aware that we all admire them. On the other hand in their efforts to contribute to the welfare of others they are oblivious of self, thereby rendering themselves more attractive.
Their influence is felt most in the home. A home is what a woman makes it, and a daughter, in nine cases out of ten, the reflection of her mother.

ing. How many people go through life with their characters all bent and warped for the want of proper early training. Being gentle and tender in her nature, woman comes in close contact with children, wielding an influence that no one else possibly could. Had it not been for the wise consecrated Christian mother, this country might never have had a character so noble as that of George Washington. Of how many mothers might it be said as a great man once said of his mother: "All that I am, or ever hope to be, I owe to my mother."

OUR CHILDREN.
Home should be made one of the most interesting and loved spots on earth, not merely four square walls of wood and brick; it should be the fountain of civilization, the very world should touch every fiber of the soul, and strike every cord of the human heart with its gentle fingers, a place where that is centralized in the higher and better things of life, bringing forth in the highways and byways an influence that will be felt by all with whom it comes in contact. It should be a place where the heart is a place where our feet may leave but not our hearts, a place where angels unfold their wings the place we love best, because it is the place where mother is.

Men can build the house and roof it in, a resistance against storms and elements, but the man with all his genius and artistic science cannot make the home; that ever has and ever will be the task of woman. It is she alone that can bring to it warmth and beauty, here she reigns supreme.
Let our homes be places of love, joy and brightest sunshine, places of enduring love that outlasts the wedding day, and which produces a life of one long unbroken honeymoon, the molding place of character, a place where the child breathes an atmosphere perfumed by the choicest flowers of heaven, where it finds the greatest earthly security in mother's loving, fostering care.

THE question is often asked, is marriage a failure? We say no, if you don't expect too much of it; but don't run the risk of trying to reform a man after marriage. In all probability you will be disappointed if you do. If your husband used tobacco when you married him, the "Mile or More" certain lectures afterward, for it says, "he that is filthy, let him be filthy still." There is a bright side to everything, if you will only look till you find it. If your husband smokes, be thankful he doesn't chew; if he smokes and chews both, be thankful he doesn't drink; if he does all three, be thankful he won't live long.

THERE are very few children indeed that ever get over their early training. In my native home there stands, in front of the school building, a large oak tree. When this tree was quite small a boy—limited to the top of it and swinging all by his weight, pulled it over to the ground. It still shows the effect of that bend-acting as "ministering angel." By her gentleness she refines the manners of the others and is diligent in her kindness to the aged, throwing wreaths of blossoms on the road that leads father and mother down the steep of years. No child of want ever comes to her and is turned away empty; no one in sorrow comes to her but is comforted; no one asks her the way to be saved but she points him to the cross.

"Tact, sincerity and amiability," says one of our best writers, "are a golden combination in the character of any girl, the first enabling her to avoid those subjects which are likely to prove irritating and keeping her from rubbing others the wrong way, the second showing her flawless as a crystal in her traits of world and thought, and the third to make her overflow with loving kindness. The essentials are within reach of all."

Notice of Dissolution.
The public is hereby notified that the partnership business heretofore done by Jones & Hale, under the name of the Barbourville Blue Gem Coal Company, is now dissolved, and that S. H. Hale is no longer connected with said business in any way.

TROUBLE.
It is a well known fact that everybody in every kind of business have their troubles, and it is useless to make trouble for yourself and your neighbor by putting off until next week what should be done to-day.
Time is money, and wasted time is money lost, and for this reason it costs us about three times as much as it should to collect our bills. We do not desire to be unreasonable, but we dislike to walk the town over six times a week to collect what we ought to collect in one day. It is our duty to see you and present our bill once and if you fail to pay, then it should be your duty to see us and make settlement if we grant you further time on your bill.
There must be a remedy for this and a rule established so that hereafter all Light bills not paid by the 10th of each month will be cut out, unless some satisfactory agreement has been made by that time.
BARBOURVILLE ELECTRIC LIGHT COMPANY.

DO YOU SEE?
How can you spend these long evenings without having a good light by which you can keep posted as to the happenings throughout the country. You cannot enjoy your reading by a kerosene lamp or tallow candle, but if you have one of those 10-candle power Shelby electric globes you can see to read in any part of the room and your eyes will not tire and pain you. They are a great luxury and no home in our town should be without the electric light service. The new management has overhauled the plant and it now gives entire satisfaction to all who are using the service. Try it, and you would not again be without it.

CORRESPONDENCE.

Mills, Ky.

Mr. W. S. Woodson was here last week selling school furniture. Both schools at this place bought nice bills, which shows the enthusiasm that the present school work has aroused.

Mrs. Rouhomia Curry, formerly Mrs. Mills, of this place, has just arrived from Madison county on her bridal tour. The shock was so great to her old suitor, Willis Warner, that it caused a nervous collapse, from which it will be difficult for him to recover.

Att. Warren, who is quite a lighter among the girls, called on Miss Dora Brock Sunday. He talks like he means business.

The sensation produced by the Curry-Mills affair, was about to culminate in a match between Will Patterson and Mollie Wages, but Amanda, the mother of the bride-to-be, appeared on the scene with her "Colt's 45" and broke down on a different aspect.

Born—To the wife of Frank Patterson, a homing boy. Mother and babe are doing nicely, and Frank is pleased he can't see for looking.

The school elections Saturday resulted in the selection of worthy men to fill the vacancies. It is surprising to see how the schools at the place are pushing to the front and the teachers with their untiring efforts deserve not a little of the credit.

The third thing we need now is a telephone. We are all great talkers, but nobody knows it. Give us a telephone and we'll tell you something.

Hopper.

Seymour Hopper and family are visiting his father, A. P. Hopper.

Dan and Joe Hopper have moved to Corbin.

Last Saturday night, from 10 to 11, there was a good deal of pouring at Bull creek, but no blood shed. Isn't it very strange that in some communities cannot hold an election without taking their guns. It is reported that the clerk had to flee with the ballot box.

N. M. Reynolds has opened up his stove hauling, and it is a sight to see how fast the teamsters are moving them.

Corn is commanding a good price here now. It is selling ready for 45 cents per bushel.

The people are all unanimously in favor of the new railroad. Our hills are heavily laden with fine timber and full of good coal awaiting the great wheels of transportation to roll it on to market.

Hammond.

Winter is coming and chestnut time will soon be over.

John Hubbard, of this place, is now recovering, after a spell of intermittent fever.

Rev. Marshall Proughton says the meeting that Dry Gourd, or Seal, tells about, that he caught the fish, but T. G. Hammons gets the honor of it.

Mr. and Mrs. John Bright visited relatives at Mills Sunday.

Henry Hinkle and the Bright brothers have purchased a fine lot of hay this year, and need the service of four or five bales. Now let's have the telephone line extended to Mills Hays, talk up, and let's have the railroad run up Stinking creek.

Grant Hammons is having considerable amount of work done, which will add much to the appearance of his residence.

T. G. Hammons is talking of running for magistrate, but, boys, as for me, I say hurrah! for John W. Messer.

Rev. Ferien Hammons and Miss Asie Mills visited friends and relatives at this place Sunday.

Our phone line is nice, but if it is extended to Mills it would be nicer. Subscribe for the Advocate and get the news.

Bailey's Switch.

Mr. George McDonald and wife, of Barbourville, were visiting friends at this place last Sunday.

Mrs. Kittie Traper, of this place, was the guest of Mrs. Cora Traper at Emanuel last Saturday and Sunday.

Rev. Frank Payne, of Pineville, preached at this place last Saturday and Sunday.

W. H. Grace and J. E. Taylor were in Barbourville on business last Saturday.

James and Harve Martin, of Pineville, were visiting their mother, Mrs. Katherine Kinder, last Saturday and Sunday.

Miss Ora Jackson was the guest of Mary Taylor last week.

W. M. Dyer has just completed a fine water well for Mrs. Nannie Taylor last week.

Miss Lizzie Disney visited relatives at Grass last Friday.

John L. Gille was visiting at Corbin last week.

John Dyer, who has been working at Corbin, was called home last Saturday on account of his sick baby, but we are glad to say the child child is some better at this writing.

Everybody should subscribe for the Mountain Advocate, the best paper in the mountains.

MARY TAYLOR.

Seal.

er the new railroad come up Stinking creek. What say you? There is plenty of coal and timber along this creek.

Hurrah! for Rev. T. G. Hammons for Justice of the Peace. We hope the people will let justice prevail and elect a man who will look after our interests and defend the rights of our district.

Our telephone is up, and if you want to save long trips, call on T. G. Hammons and you can talk anywhere on the line for 25 cents. This line ought to go to Mills and give our good people of Bigcreek a telephone. What about it?

M. H. HUBBARD.

LOCALS.

Come out and encourage the boys of the college in the football game Saturday.

Several of our citizens attended the Louis Development convention in Louisville this week.

Don't miss the football game that will be played on the Union College grounds Saturday (to-morrow) October 14, between Williamsburg Institute and Union College.

grounds Saturday (to-morrow) October 14, between Williamsburg Institute and Union College.

Born—Last Monday night to the wife of C. C. Smith, the Republican nominee for County Court Clerk, a ten pound girl. Dr. T. W. Jones attending physician.

Mrs. Elizabeth Powers, mother of Caleb Powers, united with the M. E. church here last Sunday by letter.

Rev. Howes, the new presiding elder for this district, preached at the Methodist church last Sunday evening. Rev. Howes will reside in this city.

The street-cleaning force, under H. W. McDonald, has been getting in good work during the past few days, and a notable improvement in the conditions of the streets, particularly Main street, is the result.

Rev. Ragan, formerly of Williamsburg, has, with his family, taken up his residence in this city. He is now in charge of the Anderson hotel, on River street, and will conduct an up-to-date hostelry in that building.

The first football game ever played at this place will be called off at 2:30 Saturday, the teams of Williamsburg Institute and Union College being the contestants. It is the intention of the captains of the two teams to give an interesting game of real, genuine football. The two teams are composed of college students alone, a number of the faculty of each college playing.

The Union College football team expects to line up with the Williamsburg Institute team on the home grounds Saturday. This will be the first game for the local team. Coach Potts has been doing some good work and has developed some good players in the short time he has had them in charge. An interesting game is expected.

It has been decided to postpone the beginning of work on the new building for the Methodist church, until next spring. The decision was reached by the majority of those having this work in charge on account of the lateness of the favorable building season. With the beginning of the work in the spring the building will be pushed to rapid completion.
